

How to successfully Self-Represent in Family Law

Thursday 12 March &
Wednesday 25 March 2009

7pm at the Southern Cross Sports Club
Klump Road (cnr Logan Road) Upper Mt Gravatt

A leading family law solicitor and others will lead you through the basics of how to represent yourself in family law.

The two sessions will focus on children's issues, including shared parenting and property settlement. Included will be selecting and completing the right forms, filing applications, service of documents, court procedure & protocol, mediation to reach agreement, interim court hearings, affidavits, submissions, family reports, independent children's lawyers, offers of settlement etc.

Cost: $200 including materials. Only $100 if registered with Men's Rights Agency.

Please book now by completing the form below or by calling
07 3805 5611 or emailing admin@mensrights.com.au to ensure your place.

I wish to attend the Self-representation course.

Name

Street.....

SuburbPC

Telephone: Mobile.....

Email

Name Credit Card

No: _____ / _____ / _____ / _____ Expiry.Date/.....

Signature:

I am registered with Men's Rights Agency $100.00 (tick appropriate)

I am not registered with Men's Rights Agency $200.00

Thank you for registering to attend the MRA Self-represented Litigant course.